very tempting and attractive. When I had been there, it tempted me to make so many promises. Then we passed orders for the preparation of estimates for the construction of sea-side decent cottages.

Sri V. SRINIVAS SHETTY.—The Hon'ble Minister is simply evading the question. The question is quite clear—whether there is a proposal to establish a Tourist Centre.....and if so, what steps are taken by the Government in the matter. The Hon'ble Member has put a supplemenatry question in regard to the answer whether any estimate has been prepareds to construct a rest house. But the Hon'ble Minister is unable to reply. I should like to know whether the Government have taken any steps to furthertourism and whether Government has decided to establish any tourist centre.

Sri B. BASAVALINGAPPA.—Government has decided to construct sea-side cottages.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Sir, the Hon'ble Minister said that he was tempted. Is it out of temptation that he has yielded to construct a rest house ?

Mr. SPEAKER.—It is very unfair to take advantage of temptation.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—If the place is really attractive, will the Government kindly consider the feasibility of establishing a good rest house so that people may further yield to temptation ?

Sri B. BASAVALINGAPPA.—As I said, the place is very tempting. I have not seen such a beautiful place anywhere in India. We have decided to construct sea side cottages on the model of Italian sea-side cottages. I think the estimates have been received in the office and we will pursue the same.

Sri Y. MANJAYA SHETTY.—How long will the Government take to sanction the estimates ?

Sri B. BASAVALINGAPPA.—I may bring to the notice of the Hon'ble Member that this has found a place in the Budget and the matter is being pursued.

Sri M. MALLIKARJUNASWAMY.—In view of the reply given by the Hon'ble Deputy Minister, are we to understand that it is resolved to convert the rest house or a portion of it into a guest house also and a rest house should be in keeping with the connotation and denotation and implementation of the term temptation ?
